COMMUNITIES IN SCHOOLS OF AUBURN

Communities In Schools is the nation's leading organization dedicated to keeping kids in school and helping them succeed. In over 200 communities across 25 states, we work closely with schools, social services, businesses and volunteers to get young people the things they need to learn and grow. Our proven model places site coordinators inside schools to mobilize resources to address both academic and non-academic barriers to learning.

Communities In Schools of Auburn helps students in need at all 22 Auburn schools. We buy alarm clocks for elementary children getting themselves to school. We provide scholarships for Camp Auburn. Altogether we helped 3,664 students in need throughout the district with school supplies, clothing, shoes, grooming aids and more. Our daytime and after school tutoring programs served 274 students last year alone.
